1. Beware of Doctors Wrong CONDITIONING on your mind that “Getting Pregnancy is hard”

Doctors are constantly conditioning you to believe that “something is wrong in your body and therefore the treatment is not working”.

Your mind is enslaved to doctors conditioning. You’re always haunted by thoughts of doubt and fear about your body’s ability to conceive.

Doubt and fear can disturb your body balance and shut down your body pharmacy completely...This is what we call as nocebo effect....

Getting pregnancy becomes hard and difficult for you due to these two reasons

1. Doctors wrong conditioning. 2. Your fear and doubt

Disconnection between your body and the mind

Disconnection between your body and the mind is the root cause of your fertility and hormonal problems.

Let me explain this one fact so that you can understand and appreciate the reality rather than enslaved by the doctors constant wrong conditioning.

Did you know women's cycle statistics?

- Modern woman menstruates 450 times in her life.
- Woman begins her menstrual cycles by the average age of 16.
- Woman stops her menstrual cycles by the average age of 51.

What these facts prove about women's body purpose and its structure?

During prime age (15 to 50 Years) of women's life the body has one purpose only. It's all about sex, pregnancy, giving birth, nurturing children, love and relationship. All the body systems including nervous and endocrine systems are structured to support these activities.

How your body and mind disconnected?

Modern woman due to the compulsions of the modern world started emulating masculine traits. Sex, pregnancy, giving birth, nurturing children, love and relationship are not the priority to career oriented women.

So, the body is doing feminine activities, mind is rewired to do masculine things. As a consequence, there is disconnection between the body and the mind.

Disconnection between your body and mind is the root cause of all your infertility and hormonal problems.

The real solution to infertility problems

The real solution to infertility problems is change of diets, nutrition, lifestyle changes and change of the mind with an intention of reconnecting your body and the mind.

But Doctors are not trained in the subject of diets, nutrition, lifestyle changes and mind management. Then how can you expect pregnancy simply depending on modern medicine alone.

But here is good news for you.

You can reconnect your body and mind yourself and get pregnant simply changing your mind, changing your diets, changing your lifestyle and changing your mind.

What your doctors can't do over the years, you can do it yourself using “The 3 Step Fertility Code” in 3 months or less.

2. Constantly Remind yourself that “Getting Pregnancy is Easy” to Reprogram Your Mind

You have to constantly remember that your doctors are conditioning you to believe that “getting pregnancy is hard” and your mind is also enslaved to this wrong conditioning.

So you have to constantly remind yourself that “getting pregnancy is easy” to reprogram your mind.
